

They Say Its Raining, D. Wooley
Cotton States Music Publishing, BMI

They say its raining, but I just don't know, - every day seems like the day before, -
and its been like that - ever since you been gone -

Old friends pass me everyday on the street, - I see it in their eyes but they don't believe, - It's gonna be like that - from now on -

A new horizon, facing old regrets - tear filled eyes replacing happiness -
and its been like that - ever since you been gone -

They say its raining, but I just don't know, -
every day seems like the day before, -
and its been like that - since you been gone -

People come, people go, - some leave rich, an some leave poor, - and it's been like that since the dawn of time -

Another barroom flashing neon lights, - can't explain it to these children-of-the-night, - no use in trying - I may be wrong -

They say its raining, but I just don't know, - ever day seems like the day before - and its been like that - since you been gone (Repeat fade)
